Dear Mr. Bradley,

David J. Bradley, Clerk of Court

6/4/18

mid 2017, I wrote Atty. Mr. William Demand in Houston seeking legal aid on this blanket issue. His letter of 7/17/17 he said that I have a viable case. Send him all of the evidence that I have.

Out of good faith I sent him everything yet I kept my paper trail in tact and ongoing, I have written him 8 or 10 times with no response.

My daughter has called him many times. He told her that he would write me or return all of my papers.

I have written the State Bar of Texas only to be told "we can't help you."

Mr Bradley I shouldnt need that evidence but it goes back for years to show that this has been an ongoing problem that no one but me wants to resolve without further pain or suffering, but me!!

My question is how can I get my records back? What can I do?

I'm sorry I am not trained in law and really would appreciate any help. That is why I wrote Mr Demond to begin with!

Six, I am 72 years old, please forgive my shaky hand. May God Bless!!

Thanking you in advance.

Yours Truly
